Thank you, sir.

Drew mentioned that he had written you about having the balance of Murphy & Grantland's file released to you and to us so we each have the opportunity to review it before any of it gets produced. Are you amenable to that approach?

Thanks again,
Jaan

Jim,

Might we request a further week's extension to file any motion to compel? We have given the Co-Receivers an extension through today to respond more fully, and their response will inform what if anything we need to do.

Thanks and best regards,
Jaan

Jim, thanks again, and one other request.

It is a little tricky to understand the extent of the receiver's capacity to defend Mr. Murdaugh in Nautilus' suit and the interplay of that capacity with your being counsel of record. To give us time to get some clarity from the receiver, are you willing to extend the deadline for Nautilus to file a motion to compel discovery responses? An extension through the end of next week (10/28) ought to give us enough time, and we would appreciate the courtesy.

Thanks and best regards,
Jaan

Jaan

Also, as you know John T Lay and Peter McCoy through Amy Hill have entered an appearance and filed an answer on behalf of Alex. The Receiver has control over all of Alex assets. Also, I am know for a fact that Alex does not have any of the requested information with him at the detention center. I suggest you contact Amy Hill to see if she intends to respond.

Dear Jim,

We served discovery requests on Mr. Murdaugh a little while back, and have not received a response from you. Are you able to provide a response by the end of next week, even if only an initial response?

Hope all is well.
